Hey Brianne,

I wanted to send an email to thank you for your incredible contributions this past weekend at Shirespalooza. I think you know me well enough to know that I'm not usually at a loss for words, but this weekend was truly special for me.

It means so much to me, and to our company, that you were there for this event and gave so willingly of your time, talents, and shared in celebrating with everyone. I love that this event brought so many people together, and that everyone had an opportunity to see you in the same way that I do. You're really one of a kind and we're so lucky to work with you.

We'll be going through the photos and videos from the event and I'll send along a link to check those out when they're done. You'll have access to everything. If everyone is comfortable with it we'll also be posting videos from the event on our YouTube channel and will share on social media over time.

Thank you for being you and making our company a wonderfully special place. It means the world to all of us, and personally I'm so grateful.

Please let me know if you need anything and I'll speak to you soon!

All my best,

Sam
