Course Description, Objectives, and Learning Outcomes: In this course, students will prepare and perform diverse styles of standard brass quintet repertoire in order to further their musicianship and chamber music skills. Repertoire prepared and performed will include both transcriptions and arrangements of literature not originally scored for brass quintet as well as original compositions. Through participating as an active learner in this course, students will be able to demonstrate musical growth through performance and learn repertoire encompassing a wide array of styles, genres, and eras. Additionally, students will explore works by BIPOC, LGBTQIA+, women, and another minoritized communities.

Class Prerequisites: Members of the ensemble will be paired together at the beginning of the semester.

Evaluation Procedures: Students are evaluated on attendance and active participation in coachings and group rehearsals. In addition to the regularly scheduled coaching time, students must arrange for at least one other rehearsal per week. Excused absences are allowed with prior approval. More than two unexcused absence is grounds for failure.

Performance Dates and Other Details: A performance at least one Brass Area recitals is required (dates TBA). Other performance opportunities will be discussed at the beginning of the semester.

Conduct and Professionalism

It is important that you act in a professional manner. This means showing up to rehearsals and sectionals on time, always having a pencil, treating your professors, conductors, and peers with respect. Any disrespectful behavior in the Brass Quintet will be considered unacceptable.

Accommodative Services

In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, you must contact the Office of Accommodative Services, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, the Office of Accommodative Services will provide you and your instructor with an accommodation letter via email. Please discuss the accommodations with your instructor as early in your courses as possible. You must follow this process for every semester that you request accommodations. For more information, visit the Accommodative Services website.
